

OUR CHURCHES

SYLVAN STREET CHURCH.

The Sunday school is rapidly growing under the able management of Prof. Mack T. Williams of Rogers Williams who was manager of the contest, November 26th between four of our best Sunday school workers. Mrs. Savage being the successful winner of $5.00 in gold. She having sold $14.00 worth of tickets. Miss Elizabeth Morgan, came second with $12.00. Mrs. Rena Marshall third, $6.85, and Miss Temple Johnson $5.00. Mrs. Bostie and Miss Woods sold the refreshments. The Sunday school realized about $40.00. The Pastors Fund had quite a success Thanksgiving day. The ladies furnished plenty of good dinner for all who chanced to come this way. The Art exhibit and canned goods made a splendid showing, after the exhibit was over the members supplied Rev. J. R. Evans the pastor with many cans of fruits and vegetables he received to know that he had been remembered by so many of the loyal members. Splendid services all day Sunday. Rev. Evans preached a splendid sermon at 3 o'clock and then ministered the Lord's supper at the close of this service the pastor and a few of the members went to the home of Mrs. Emma Wilson on S. 10th.

A decided improvement in class room work is evident on the part of the student body as shown by the reports of the monthly tests.

When it is seen that only nine out of nearly two hundred students failed, all will agree that the efficiency is growing.

Some mother's boy will be helped by your effort Dec. 17th.

AUXILIARY.

The Women's Auxiliary of the 15th Ave Baptist Church was in its regular meeting on Thursday night, Dec. 13th at the residence of Mrs. Ada Walker, 1305 Jo Johnson Ave.

The meeting was opened by the President at 8:20 p. m. with song, "Nearer My God to Thee." Prayer by the President, Sister Moore. Song, "There's rest for the weary."

The Scripture lesson was from Matthew the 9th chapter, which was discussed for 20 minutes by our pastor Rev. A. W. Porter. The quotations and dues were next in order which was responded to by all. With several visitors and new members. All business was carried out by the President. The members agreed to give a parlor concert, successive to a rally in order to aid the old people or members of the church.

The meeting was then dismissed with song and prayer by Sister Willie Reed. The hostess, Mrs. Walker, highly entertained the Auxiliary, most loyally with a 3 course menu. Every one present expressed themselves as having enjoyed the evening with Mrs. Walker and hope to meet with her again real soon. We always like to meet with Mrs. Walker.

Help the boys in camp to sing and pray after training hours. Come to their benefit at Ryman Auditorium Monday night. Hear the concert.

The Galeda Class met last Wednesday night at the church with Rev. A. W. Porter. The President called the class to order at 8:30 o'clock with song and prayer. After which the teacher took charge of the class for 40 minutes and taught the lesson which was very interesting.

Quotations and dues were the next in order, which was responded to very liberally. After a few remarks from the President and teacher, the class was dismissed to meet with Miss Laura Brooks next Wednesday night.

The teacher, assisted by Mrs. Ada Walker, Misses Emma and Willie Reed and Miss Laura Brooks, served the class to oyster soup, ice cream and cake. The metekas came in at the time they were serving and partook of the repast. Also Rev. Woodbey was present. Each one left hoping to meet with the host again.

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS OF WOODBEY'S LECTURES.

"He went on to prove in a very logical way that the early nations of antiquity, the founders of all the arts and sciences were Negroes. The Chaldeans, the Egyptians and Carthaginians were Negro People. His arguments were founded upon the Bible and on the writings of Herodotus and other ancients." Riverside Daily News, California.

"The Negro in Ancient History was scholarly, logical and full of history. It was one of the best lectures I ever heard."—Mt. Orr News, Ringgold, Iowa.

"Rev. G. W. Woodbey's address was marked throughout by clearness of statement, broad views, irresistible logic and all that goes to make up attractive and effective oratory, keen, powerful, but expressing only weighty thoughts. He made one of the best speeches we ever heard."

Special invitation is extended to the faculties and students of the different schools of the city. The lecture will show that the ancestors of the Negro were once the leaders and teachers of all other races.

Admission 10 cents.

REV. W. S. AMOS IN OHIO.

Among the Nashville people who have gone North in the past few months is Rev. W. S. Amos, who was the former superintendent of the Tabernacle Baptist Sunday school. He was one of the reliable workers in the Sunday School Union, a strong supporter of the Sunday School Congress movement, in fact, he built a front line Sunday school on the south side. It is learned now that Rev. Amos has entered the ministry, having been ordained, and that he is now in charge of a Baptist Church at Fremont, Ohio, where he is living. During the whole time he has been away from Nashville he has kept in close touch with the affairs of the denomination. He is expecting to pass through Nashville next June en route to the Sunday School Congress to be held in Alexandria, La.

IN MEMORIAM.
In memory of my departed friend, Mrs. Susie Elliott nee (Dysart) of Farmington, Tenn.

A bitter grief, a shock severe,
To part with one I loved so dear;
I often sit and think of you,
When I am all alone;
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.

Oh, Susie how sad when I learned you had gone from this world of ours! Shocking as it came I know you are better off. When we met at my home in Tennessee, we have been friends, years and days ago. I shall not forget you, and as I wrote you about your babe that preceded you to the heavens beyond and planted in the depths below:

As one we stand as one we fall
To only one we nod,
He who governs us rules all
The just and living God.

That all was well with him and God knew best, being too wise to make a mistake you would understand it better after awhile. Though longing for home and your mother's caress, to say good bye mamma and papa is sad, God had planned his majesty when you were praying to see them to say those parting words, and instead of letting you see a home in mourning as it was, called you into a beautiful city, where sickness, sorrow nor death ever enters. How much happier it is going into a strange place with some one you knew, some one you loved (your baby) than in a strange place looking around hunting for those who had left your villages, years, months, weeks and days ago. I shall not forget you, and so I wrote you when your heart was in sorrow for your child I shall do so to your mother.

Rest, rest sweet dreams of rest
You only know, "Susie" which life is best.
Yes, I say, dream on in the Savior's breast
For whoever toils for him, shall rest, shall rest.

Many years ago you heard about the two paths of life and in listening to some divine of God, chose the side which gave you this eternal rest. How happy it is to rest in the Savior's arms. Your church shall miss you, every one that has met you was always welcomed with your loving smiles. You shall be missed in your school room. And worst of all that vacant chair and the sounds of your footsteps in your mother's home.

Four weeks have passed, my heart still sore,
As time flies on I miss you more;
You sleep, we leave you in peace to rest,
The parting is painful, but God knoweth best,
Farewell! Farewell! Farewell!

I hope to meet you again.
Your loving friend,
SUSIE FLACK,
Cleveland, Ohio.

TAG DAY A SUCCESS.

The Tag Day conducted by the Big Sisters to the Forward Quest Girls Club of the Bethlehem House, was a decided success. The neat sum of one hundred and seventy dollars and sixty cents ($170.60). This fund will be used for two purposes.

First—To aid the Forward Quest Girls Club of the Bethlehem House.

Second—To aid all worthy charitable cases. Relief is to be given the sick, needy and distressed.

This Tag Day was the opening of a great financial campaign for the month of December. It will take a great deal of money to foster the only Girl's Club in Nashville that teaches girls to look up and also lift as they climb. There will be a deal of suffering this winter and it will take a great deal of money. We are asking all friends to contribute. Already contributions are coming in. Among the contributors so far are Mrs. W. J. Hale, Mrs. Carpenter, Miss Virginia Queen and the New Idea Club.

The boxes of the Big Sisters and their Chaparones netted the following amounts:

Cedar street and Fourth Avenue, $17.00.
Y. M. C. A. $8.20.
Peoples Saving Bank and Star Theatre, $11.47.
Fourth Avenue and Deaderick, $43.02.

GRAND MASTER MOORE WELL PLEASED.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 4, 1917.—(Special to the Globe).—L. C. Moore, D. G. M. of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows of Tennessee is back from his first annual trip and is now full of smiles after visiting the Grand Secretary's office and seeing how loyal the brothers are to his call to the support of the Endowment plan. He says with few exceptions the lodges from Shelby to Carter have adopted the plan. And not only that, but since it has been circulated that the order is to have an Endowment Department and all members who are financial when it goes into effect will be admitted regardless of age, has caused the members who left the order to rush back as the plan is on the age limit. He also signed applications for new lodges and he feels very much encouraged and says this is a proof of the care that the brothers have for their families. For every loyal man to his family is desirous of leaving something for his loved ones when he is gone.

Grand Master Moore is now planning to organize the order into DISTRICTS, and to appoint deputies in each district. Each district is to have a corps of officers and executive committee, social committee whose duty it shall be to see after the condition of the lodges and House-holds in their respective districts. Said committees are to report to the District meeting their financial and numerical condition and the number of new members in each lodge and household and assist each other in a financial way by giving entertainments, etc. There will be a prize given the lodge making the largest number of members in each district. Each district shall hold quarterly meetings. He is of the opinion that this will serve to strengthen the order and put the members in touch with each other.

Our anticipation—$5,000 at Ryman Auditorium Dec. 17th.

Columbia, Tenn., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Mattie Ray of Savannah spent Thanksgiving Day as house guest of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Davis. Mrs. Ray is the mother of Mrs. Davis. It is understood that Dr. Davis will respond to our country's call at an early date, he having received his commission as First Lieutenant in the Medical Reserve Corps. Mrs. Ray therefore decided to visit him before his leaving for the front.

Mrs. Ray was the recipient of many social courtesies. Mrs. Sarah Hughes, Mrs. Amelia Crawford honored her with toothsome dinners and other friends extended hospitality. She was guest of honor at the Soldiers' Knitting Club and delivered a strong address, outlining the loyalty of the colored soldiers. She was greeted with enthusiastic applause after her address was finished. The club is rapidly advancing under the presidency of Mrs. Hugh Murrill.

Mrs. Ray was delighted with her visit and returned last Monday to Savannah. She has only words of praise for Columbia and its warm-hearted, hospitable people.
